

Frontliners celebrated its 10th Anniversary Function with pomp & show in a glittering function at Fencing Hall, Daiya. When the tornado struck Kuwait city, at the same time, more than 1500 audience, could see the thunder & storm at the stage in function.

The function was presided over by Ambassador of India to Kuwait HE Ganapathy and was the stage was star-studded with Shatrugan Sinha, and icon of Film world and former union minister and Nasser, a popular actor-turned-director south and TV fame actress Devi Priya.

There was an enthralling entertainment programme by kids exhibiting their talents on the stage with their captivating music and dance numbers.

Singaravelu, welcomed the audience and after welcome address by President A.N. Natarajan, HE Ganapathi addressed the gathering with his inimitable style of conveying the messages clearly to the community, Lakshminarayanan, the Adviser of Frontliners gave introductory speech & N.R. Sampath introduced Actor Nasser. Ashok Kalra felicitated Frontliners for their 10 years services to the community.

The deputy chairman of Kuwait voluntary service centre Eng Ahmad Almershed praised the Fontliners activities and Indian community.

The 12th part of Frontliners book written by writer N.C. Mohandoss was released by Shatrugan Sinha as the chief guest of function and the first copy was received by Nasser as special guest.

An eloquent speech was delivered by Shatrugan Sinha which ended with a trust on patriotism and love to our mother-land. He maintained his unforgettable style and dense voice which carried the audience to yester years down the memory lane.

Mementoes were presented to visiting guests and also to sponsors of programme and supporters to Frontiers by N.C.Mohandoss – the founder of Frontliners.